

A 1950s Diamond and White Gold Slip Knot Pendant Necklace POA

an informal knot of brilliant and baguette cut diamond tassels, with baguette cut diamonds representing the tassels underside, terminating with asscher cut diamonds and tied on one side to a panelled scrolled volute (or snail scroll) of two curled gold rows set with brilliant cut diamonds, each outer panel punctuated by a single rose cut diamond. All set in eighteen carat white gold and hung from a simple white gold chain. Three dimensional 1950s elegance, exquisite.

This piece is available to purchase online at www.eltonantiquejewellery.com.

Materials	White Gold
Main Gemstone	Diamond
Carat for Gold	18 K

Antique ref: diamond_white_neck