Omega Classic Calibre 269 Manual Wind 34mm 1964

Omega Classic Calibre 269 – A beautifully preserved example of Omega's understated 1960s dress watch design, presented in exceptional condition for its age and fitted with a fresh unworn dark navy leather strap. With its clean white dial, elegant baton hour markers and subsidiary seconds display, this reference perfectly captures the restrained sophistication that made Omega one of the leading names in Swiss watchmaking during the post-war era.

Dating to 1964, this watch remains in remarkable condition throughout, with an immaculate dial and a stainless steel case showing very little evidence of wear. Having passed through our workshop and currently performing exceptionally well, it offers an excellent opportunity to acquire a genuine vintage Omega ready to be enjoyed.
