Our View

The Professional 200M Chronograph series helped cement TAG Heuer's reputation for producing robust, practical luxury sports watches. The CK1121 remains one of the most attractive references in the range, thanks to its combination of a crisp white dial, contrasting gold chronograph registers and striking two-tone construction.

The 39mm case size provides excellent wrist presence while the quartz movement ensures reliable and hassle-free ownership. Increasingly appreciated by collectors looking for quality vintage TAG Heuer sports watches, the CK1121 offers a tremendous amount of watch for the money.

A stylish, dependable and increasingly collectible TAG Heuer sports chronograph.
