

Chinese famille verte dish, early Kangxi (1662-1722) POA

Chinese famille verte dish, early Kangxi (1662-1722), decorated with a qilin in a fenced garden confronting a phoenix circling beneath cloudscrolls, the verdant landscape with rockwork, bamboo and a jardinière containing lingzhi and fruiting branches, the reverse with floral sprays, and a lozenge in underglaze blue mark to the base within a double footrim; ; condition: broken and restored to a high standard. The phoenix and qilin were two of the Four Auspicious Animals and together represent harmony in the universe.

Origin	Oriental Other
Period	17th Century
Condition	Very good
Diameter	15 3/8 in. (39 cm.)

Antique ref: U992