

Chinese famille verte ribbed winepot and cover POA

Chinese famille verte ribbed winepot and cover, Kangxi (1662-1722), the moulded lobed baluster body decorated with vertical bands with various floral patterns including lotus and chrysanthemum, the S-shaped spout with flower heads and insects, the lobed lid with a central floral design with alternating panels of blue, yellow and green, beneath a handle in the form of spotted green bamboo.

Origin	Oriental Other
Period	17th Century
Condition	Very good
Dimensions	height: 7 in. (17.8cm.)

Antique ref: W121