

Chinese famille verte moulded teapot and cover
POA

Chinese famille verte moulded teapot and cover, Kangxi (1662-1722), the body decorated with panels containing flowers issuing from rockwork and grasshoppers, butterflies and other insects, between two bands of ruyi heads, the spout and handle decorated with floral sprays, the cover with panels containing flowerheads, with a geometric green band and blue knob.

Origin	Oriental Other
Period	17th Century
Condition	Very good
Dimensions	height: 6in. (15.3cm.)

Antique ref: W122