

Ruby Red and Clear Foiled Paste Silver Cross | Victorian c.1830s POA

A fine English cross pendant, crafted circa 1830s from sterling silver and set with brilliantly foiled paste stones.

At its centre, a vivid red paste gem backed with coloured foil mimics a ruby. Surrounding it are fourteen large clear paste stones, each hand set in closed back silver mounts to resemble old cut diamonds.

A wonderful piece, striking when worn on chain or ribbon.
