

A Lalique Cecelia Fume Crystal Eye Pendant POA

Circa 1980s Lalique "Cecelia" Fume Eye Pendant in Brown Crystal.

Measuring 6.3cm x 5.7cm and suspended from a 71cm braided cord.

Lalique is a French glassmaker, founded by renowned glassmaker and jeweller René Lalique in 1888. Lalique is best known for producing glass art, including perfume bottles, vases, and hood ornaments during the early twentieth century.

Following the death of René, Lalique transitioned to producing lead glass (crystal) works during the 1950s while under the direction of René's son, Marc Lalique. Since 2010, Lalique has been owned by Swiss company Art and Fragrance.
