

A Laliqce Cecelia Fume Crystal Eye Pendant £525.00

Circa 1980s Laliqce "Cecelia" Fume Eye Pendant in Brown Crystal.

Measuring 6.3cm x 5.7cm and suspended from a 71cm braided cord.

Laliqce is a French glassmaker, founded by renowned glassmaker and jeweller René Laliqce in 1888. Laliqce is best known for producing glass art, including perfume bottles, vases, and hood ornaments during the early twentieth century.

Following the death of René, Laliqce transitioned to producing lead glass (crystal) works during the 1950s while under the direction of René's son, Marc Laliqce. Since 2010, Laliqce has been owned by Swiss company Art and Fragrance.

This piece is available to purchase online at www.eltonantiquejewellery.com.

Origin	French
Period	1950s
Style	Art Nouveau
Condition	Excellent
Materials	Other
Main Gemstone	Glass
Dimensions	6.3cm x 5.7cm on a 71cm braided cord

Antique ref: LALIQUE