

Burmese Sapphire & Diamond 18ct Gold Ring | Art Deco c.1930s POA

A striking British ring from the 1930s, designed with five richly coloured Burmese sapphires across the centre, weighing a combined 1.10 carats.

Two rows of old European cut diamonds, totalling approximately 0.65 carats, border the sapphires to create a bright geometric panel effect.

The setting is crafted in 18 carat yellow gold, stamped with the 750 and crown hallmark, and measures 1.2cm by 1cm on the finger.

Currently a UK size P.
