

Edwardian Old Cut Diamond Cluster Ring in Platinum & 18ct Gold |
English c.1910
POA

An original Edwardian diamond cluster ring, crafted in England around 1910 in platinum and 18 carat yellow gold.

Nineteen bright old cut diamonds, totalling around 1.50 carats, are set in a softly domed platinum top with fine millegrain edging and delicate grain settings.

Re assayed in Birmingham in 1997, it bears the maker's mark AL and 750 for 18ct gold. A timeless antique piece that captures the quiet luxury of the Edwardian era.
