

Chinese famille verte dish, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Chinese famille verte dish, Kangxi (1662-1722), decorated with a phoenix in a fenced garden with branches of peony and chrysanthemum issuing from rockwork and a jardinière containing prunus, bamboo and pine, with a phoenix in flight above, bordered by four cartouches enclosing fish and birds against peony blossom and foliage on a green-stippled ground, the reverse decorated with alternating scrolling peonies and lilies beneath a cross-hatch rouge-de-fer decoration containing 6 vignettes on the underside of rim, diameter: 35.5cm. (14 in.), condition: 2 shallow frits and one shallow frit to footrim

Origin	Oriental Other
Period	17th Century
Style	Other

Antique ref: W178