

Chinese blue and white klapmutz bowl POA

Chinese blue and white klapmutz bowl, Kangxi (1662-1722), with everted rim, decorated with four panels depicting scenes on a terrace, the outside rim decorated with a leiwen pattern and four cartouches containing precious objects, the interior with a central roundel containing two children playing in a landscape within concentric bands, the inner rim with leiwen pattern and four cartouches containing peaches, the base with apocryphal Chenghua mark. Condition: glaze spot to outside of rim well restored hairline to rim

Origin	Chinese
Period	17th Century
Condition	Good

Diameter

21cm (8 ¼ in.)

Antique ref: W146