

Vintage Georland of Paris, 18 Karat Gold and Diamond Bracelet, French circa 1965
£6,000.00

A heavy 18 karat yellow gold and diamond panel bracelet by the makers Georland of Paris. There are 18 gold graduated panels of textured leaf design each set with 3 high quality brilliant cut diamonds. Signed Georland with French marks.

The Georland Atelier was founded in Paris in 1954 by Georges Richard and Roland Boudier. They combined their names to form the makers name of Georland and specialised in the creation of fine jewellery. As their reputation grew, they began to attract the attention of the prestigious Maisons of the Place Vendome and soon they were creating collections for a variety of famous jewellers. In 1958 they opened up a shop in New York and later the business expanded into Europe with commissions coming from Geneva and the UK.

Measures 17.5cm in length x 13mm in width.

Weight 55g.

1960's vintage signed piece.

Stock no. 1793

20th century, French circa 1965.

Central London based retailer.

| | |
|-------------------|----------------------------------|
| Origin | French |
| Period | 1960s |
| Style | Mid-Century |
| Condition | Excellent |
| Materials | Yellow Gold |
| Main Gemstone | Diamond |
| Main Gemstone Cut | Brilliant Cut |
| Carat for Gold | 18 K |
| Hallmark | Signed Georland, French marks |
| Dimensions | 17.5cm in length x 13mm in width |

Antique ref: 1793