

Meissen cabinet teapot and cover POA

Meissen cabinet teapot and cover well decorated to front and reverse with birds amongst foliage, the four corners with Corinthian column design, the spout and handle similarly decorated, the reticulated cover surmounted with a double headed Roman-type Goddess. Underglazed cross swords mark with impressed factory numerals, circa 1860

Origin	German
Period	19th Century
Style	Classical
Condition	Very good
Hallmark	Underglazed crossed swords
Dimensions	12cms height