

Meissen Hentschelkinder figure POA

Meissen Art Nouveau figure, one of a series of child subjects produced by Konrad Hentschel in the early 1900's. This model depicting a young child playing with a plank being utilised as a hobby horse with a drum at the bottom. Crossed swords mark with impressed factory numerals circa 1905

Origin	German
Period	Early 1900s
Style	Art Nouveau
Condition	Good
Hallmark	Underglazed crossed swords
Dimensions	19cms height

Antique ref: 059