

Pair of Chinese famille rose teabowls and saucers, Yongzheng (1723-35)
POA

Pair of Chinese famille rose teabowls and saucers, Yongzheng (1723-35), decorated in the centre with a roundel containing a lotus, surrounded by flowerheads and scrolling decoration, diameter of saucer: 5 ¼ in. (13.2 cm.); height of teabowl: 1 ¾ in. (4.5 cm.); condition: minute frits, one teabowl with tiny chip and faint hairline. Provenance: Martin Hurst collection, purchased from W. Waddingham Antiques, Harrogate. George Williamson's 'The Book of Famille Rose' is primarily based on William Martin Hurst's collection of Yongzheng famille rose porcelain.

Material and Technique	Porcelain with famille rose enamels
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Other
Dimensions	Height of teabowl: 4.5cm
Diameter	Diameter of saucer: 13.2cm.

Antique ref: U765