

An Italian Enamelled Parrot Brooch Offered by The Gilded Lily £5,950.00

A tremendous brooch from the 1960's. Made in Italy, this brooch is attributed to the sort after maker Frascarollo. The unsigned piece is typical of the early work Frascarollo did as a manufacturing enameller for David Webb and Kutchinsky before establishing his own atelier in New York in the 1960's. Early in his career Frascarollo's unsigned pieces, made to be marketed by retailers, established his reputation and led to his establishment as a renowned artist. This brooch shows all the personality typical of his vivid animal pieces and the distinctive colours of his furnace enamelling.
