

Halo Diamond Solitaire Ring. S.Greenstein £2,950.00

A lovely 0.7ct halo set diamond solitaire ring set in 18k white gold. A smaller version of the one above. A very compact design, great quality diamonds. The central diamond is approximately 0.45ct, surrounded by high white round brilliant stones. Very clean piercings at the back of the ring, allowing it to be cleaned easily. These halo rings constitute great value for money, are really special pieces to wear, and are constantly in high demand. S.Greenstein & Co
