

Russian Faberge gold mounted nephrite bowl, Michael Perchin, St. Petersburg 1899-1903 £12,995.00

Russian Faberge gold mounted nephrite bowl, Michael Perchin, St. Petersburg 1899-1903, circular, bulbous body with a chased laurel border, struck on the mount with workmaster's initials, 56standard, with scratched inventory number 3929, Collection of Sir Charles Clore.

Diameter: 4.5cm.

Height: 3cm.

Weight: 50gr.

Literature:

Exhibition catalogue Count down to the Millennium, Fabergé, London, Tessier, n. 57

G. von Habsburg, Fabergé: Imperial Craftsman and His World, London, 2000, n. 356, p. 218 listed and illustrated

Exhibition:

London, Tessier, Count down to the Millennium, Fabergé, 12-20 November 1999

Wilmington, Riverfront Arts Center, Fabergé: Imperial Craftsman and His World, 8 September 2000 – 18 February 2001

Origin	Russian
Period	Early 1900s

Antique ref: faberge jade salt