

Downstairs at Grays: A very fine Belle Epoque Diamond Ring mounted in 18ct Yellow Gold & Platinum, French, Circa 1905 £10,450.00

An extremely fine 18 Carat Yellow Gold Platinum tipped Belle Epoque Ring, with two stylised elongated double foliate swirls, each swirl supporting an eight raised claw- set transition-cut Diamond, both Diamonds have been assessed by an independent Gemmologist as follows: (1) 0.70 Carats and (2) 0.60 Carats (both principal Diamonds at a total of 1.30 Carats), they are of F- G Colour & VS2 - SI1 Clarity; the swirls supporting these two Diamonds contain a further 0.72 Carats of G Colour and VS - SI Clarity Round Brilliant-Cut Diamonds.

Accompanied by an Independent Gemmologist's Report confirming the above assessment.

This is an exceptional example of the finest craftsmanship of the period demonstrating the "Curved lines of stylised Belle Epoque Designs".
