

Pearl & Blue Enamel Diamond Ring | Georgian c.1820s POA

A spectacular late Georgian ring, made in England circa 1820s, crafted in 9 carat gold and featuring a central natural pearl surrounded by a halo of seed pearls, all set against a vivid panel of cobalt blue enamel. A rose cut diamond is set at each corner, adding soft sparkle to the design.

The top of the ring measures approximately 2.3cm by 1.9cm.

The gold is finely engraved with a radiating border motif and delicate foliate details along the shoulders.

Ring size: P½
