

Victorian Garnet Cluster Ring | 2.85ct Garnets in 15ct Gold | English
c.1880s
POA

A bold and romantic Victorian garnet cluster ring, set with approximately 2.85 carats of richly hued, cushion-cut garnets in a warm 15ct gold mount.

The arrangement forms a generous floral cluster, glowing with deep crimson and magenta tones that catch the light with dramatic intensity.

Likely made in Britain around the 1880s, the ring showcases the era's love of richly coloured gems and sentimental symbolism.

The gold is softly rounded and substantial, typical of late Victorian craftsmanship, with elegant claw settings that lend height and presence.

A standout antique, full of life and warmth - wear it as a statement on its own or layered with other treasures for a modern take on historic glamour.
