www.graysantiques.co.uk

Pair of Bristol green glass decanters and stoppers, late 18th century
POA

Pair of Bristol green glass decanters and stoppers, late 18th century, probably decorated by James Giles (1718-1780), of square form with chamfered corners, with the labels 'Maraschino' and 'Curaco', decorated in gilt with fruiting vines and panels of diaper pattern.

Condition: Slight wear to gilding, minute frit to shoulder of one.

Material and Technique	Green glass with gilt decoration
Origin	British
Period	18th Century
Condition	Other
Dimensions	Height: approx. 22.5cm. (8 7/8in.)

Antique ref: U199