

Pair of Bristol green glass decanters and stoppers, late 18th century POA

Pair of Bristol green glass decanters and stoppers, late 18th century, probably decorated by James Giles (1718-1780), of square form with chamfered corners, with the labels 'Maraschino' and 'Curaco', decorated in gilt with fruiting vines and panels of diaper pattern, height: approx. 8 7/8in., 22.5cm; condition: slight wear to gilding, minute frit to shoulder of one.

<https://www.chinese-porcelain-art.com/item/U199/pair-of-bristol-green-glass-decanters-and-stoppers/>

Material and Technique	Green glass with gilt decoration
Origin	British
Period	Pre 1900
Condition	Other
Dimensions	height: approx. 8 7/8in., 22.5cm

Antique ref: U199