

Silver & Marcasite Feather Brooch | English 1963 | 16cm Statement Design POA

This striking silver feather brooch, hallmarked Birmingham 1963, is a beautiful example of enduring British elegance.

At 16cm long, it commands attention - not through bold colour or trend-led styling, but through sculptural grace and meticulous detail.

Set with glittering marcasite and shaped in a classic curled feather form, it harks back to an earlier tradition of refinement.

This is not swinging Carnaby Street, it's the quieter, tailored glamour of a woman who never gave up gloves and good handbags.

Think early '60s Belgravia: smart coats, structured silhouettes, and a brooch like this placed just-so.

It's a transitional piece: still deeply rooted in pre-war design sensibilities, but made for a new decade.

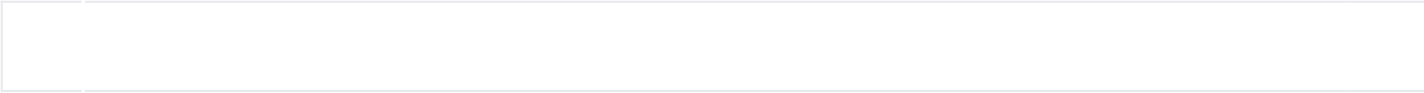

It is timeless, quietly confident, and beautifully made.

Available exclusively at ELTONS, Grays Antique Market, Mayfair, London.
