

Ruby, Pearl & Diamond Necklace | Snowflake Motif | French c.1900s POA

A beautiful openwork snowflake necklace, likely made in France c.1900s features a halo of approximately 1.5 carats of old cut diamonds, finished with fine millegrain detail.

At the centre, a circle of tightly set calibr  cut rubies, around 40 points, surrounds a luminous natural pearl. Each point of the pendant is also tipped with a natural pearl.

The pendant measures 3cm across and hangs from a 44cm platinum chain to sit just at the collarbone.
