

Rock Crystal Heart Pendant Necklace | Sapphire Set Gold Chain | English c.1930s POA

A striking piece of late 1930s design, this necklace features a large, faceted and luminous 3cm rock crystal heart.

It is suspended from a beautifully detailed 9ct gold chain, made up of pierced decorative gold links, with four small sapphires spaced along the chain on each side, adding soft flashes of blue that catch the eye.

Likely made in England in the late 1930s, it sits flatteringly just below the collarbone at 45cm length.
