

Gold Amethyst & Pearl Necklace | Draped Chain with Botanical Berry Motif | Art Nouveau c.1900
POA

This necklace captures the gentle spirit of Art Nouveau design, all soft curves, subtle movement, and natural grace

Crafted in warm yellow gold, it features a cluster of amethysts and natural seed pearls arranged like ripe berries on a delicate branch.

The effect is tender and organic, with each gem placed just so to create a fresh sense of rhythm and balance.

A second draped gold chain falls from the shoulders of the necklace, adding an effortless, slightly bohemian touch that feels quietly romantic - like something worn with ease and affection.

The pearls shimmer softly against the skin; the amethysts bursting with a rich, juicy hue. Likely made in England around 1900, it reflects the Edwardian era's lighter touch and love of nature - refined, feminine, and never overstated.

It's a piece that doesn't need to be loud to be unforgettable.
Worn at the collarbone, it brings colour and a timeless charm.
