

Gold Bow Pendant Necklace | Diamond Accent & Openwork Elegance | German c.1960s POA

A beautifully made gold bow pendant, crafted in Germany in the 1960s - sculptural, elegant, and easy to wear.

The bow is shaped from richly toned gold, with an open, flowing form that gives it a sense of lightness and movement.

It's not a traditional bow, more stylised, more grown-up, and a row of small diamonds adds just the right touch of sparkle, sitting neatly along one side of the design.

It hangs from a fine gold chain that suits it perfectly, simple enough to let the pendant take centre stage.

Graceful, wearable, and quietly distinctive, it's the kind of piece you wear with ease and keep forever.

Available exclusively at ELTONS, Grays Antique Market, Mayfair, London.
