

Mid-Century Coral & Diamond Ring | 9ct Gold | c.1950s POA

A beautifully made British ring from the 1950s, set with a glowing salmon-hued coral cabochon flanked by two bright diamonds, all in warm 9ct gold.

The design is clean and balanced, with just enough detail to catch the eye, but never overpower the natural beauty of the materials.

The coral's colour is soft but vivid - the kind that flatters every skin tone - while the diamonds add a subtle lift of light.

It's a ring that feels timeless in its proportions, quietly glamorous in its effect, and unmistakably mid-century in its sensibility.

Understated, graceful, and full of natural charm. Ring size M½.

Available exclusively at ELTONS, Grays Antique Market, Mayfair, London.
