

Garnet Cabochon Trilogy Ring | 9ct Gold | English c.1940s POA

A beautifully balanced 1940s trilogy ring set in warm 9ct gold, showcasing three deep cabochon garnets, the central stone especially full-bodied and luminous.

With its smooth, domed gemstones and sculpted shoulders, the design captures the understated elegance of wartime and post-war Britain, when jewellery was chosen as much for emotional significance as for style.

Garnets symbolised love, strength, and protection - making this ring a meaningful gift for a 21st birthday, engagement, or anniversary during a time when every gesture mattered.

Romantic, resilient, and effortlessly wearable - this piece speaks to those who favour beauty with quiet depth.

Available exclusively at ELTONS, Grays Antique Market, Mayfair, London.
