

Silver Marcasite & Coral Ring | Art Deco c.1920s POA

This striking 1920s ring captures the bold glamour of the Art Deco era, with a vibrant coral centrepiece surrounded by a scalloped halo of round coral cabochons, delicately set in softly shimmering marcasite.

Crafted in 935 silver, a higher purity silver often used in continental Europe, it reflects a period when coral and marcasite were a particularly popular combination.

The decorative face of the ring measures 2cm by 1.5cm, and the ring is a UK size N.
