

Vintage Sterle Brooch of A Sprig of Mistletoe in Gold circa 1950 £3,750.00

Vintage Sterle Brooch of a Sprig of Mistletoe in 18 Karat Gold.

A finely made heavy quality brooch in the form of a sprig of mistletoe in the Art Nouveau style. The use of a finely textured soft patina creates the effect of realistic veining to the leaves. The two mistletoe berries are represented by a pair of cultured pearls both with a central brilliant cut diamond. Signed Sterle Paris and numbered 5662 on the stem of the brooch. Also stamped with a French poncion mark of an eagles head.

In excellent condition and a fine example of a vintage Sterle brooch.

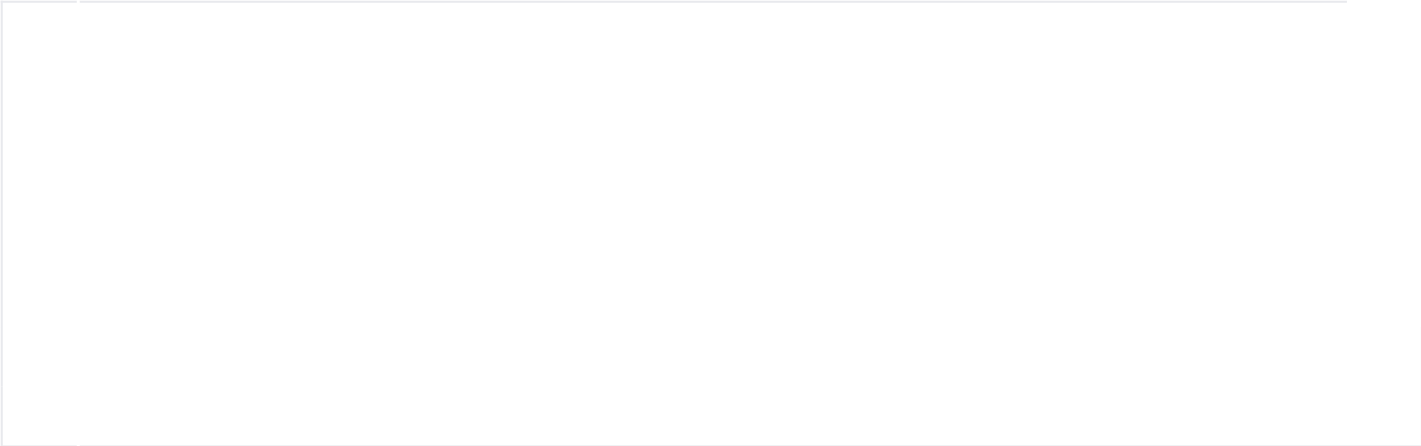

Measures 60mm in height x 25mm in width.

20th century, French circa 1950.

Stock no. 2038

Member of BADA and Lapada

Origin	French
Period	1950s
Style	Art Nouveau
Condition	Excellent
Materials	Yellow Gold
Main Gemstone	Pearl

Carat for Gold	18 K
Hallmark	Signed Sterle, no.5662, eagles head
Dimensions	60mm x 25mm

Antique ref: Stock no. 2038