

Edwardian Five-Stone Diamond Ring | 18ct Gold | English c.1915 POA

A beautifully crafted Edwardian five-stone diamond ring dating to around 1915, set in rich 18 carat yellow gold.

Made in England and fully hallmarked with an anchor, crown, and 18, this elegant piece showcases approximately 0.60 carats of bright old-cut diamonds in a classic graduated setting.

The band features softly carved details, typical of the period's refined style.

Currently a UK size L½, it offers timeless charm either as a period engagement ring or a meaningful antique gift.

Available exclusively at ELTONS, Grays Antique Market, Mayfair, London.
