

Carnelian Signet Ring | 18ct Gold | c.1970s POA

Set in eighteen carat gold with a warm, polished carnelian stone, this English-made signet ring captures the clean-lined confidence of 1970s design.

Its smooth silhouette and minimalist setting reflect the modernist sensibility of the era - a quiet assertion of style.

Crafted in England, the ring balances substance and simplicity, making it an elegant choice for daily wear or understated occasion dressing.

The carnelian's rich tone adds depth to the sleek gold setting, and its size (N½) offers a comfortable, gender-neutral fit.

Timeless in form, this is a piece that speaks to grounded style and enduring taste.
