

Silver Gilt Coral Grape Earrings | Italian c.1850 POA

A delightful pair of mid-19th century Italian coral earrings, featuring finely hand-carved coral beads arranged in the form of grape clusters, suspended beneath engraved silver gilt leaf caps.

Each cluster swings freely from a matching coral bead and French lever back, reflecting the naturalistic style and symbolism typical of the period.

These earrings are a testament to the fine craftsmanship of Torre del Greco, where coral carving reached artistic heights.

Beautifully balanced in scale and colour, they offer both historic charm and vivid elegance.

Available exclusively at ELTONS, Grays Antique Market, Mayfair, London.
