

Belle Époque Coral Rose Drop Earrings | 18ct Gold & Diamond | c.1910s POA

Exquisitely carved coral roses bloom beneath delicate Belle Époque diamond set bows in this romantic pair of drop earrings, crafted circa 1910.

Set in 18 carat gold, the design balances softness and sophistication, with timeless hand carved coral and subtle diamond accents.

Each earring measures approximately 4cm in length, with the roses around 1.1cm in diameter.

The coral is likely of Italian origin, carved in the renowned workshops of Torre del Greco, while the overall design suggests it was made for the French market, a beautiful blend of Italian craftsmanship and French elegance.
