

Victorian Scottish Agate & Silver Butterfly Brooch | c.1880s POA

A charming butterfly brooch made in Scotland around the 1880s, set in sterling silver with panels of natural Scottish agate, including Montrose and moss agate, jasper, and bloodstone.

These stones were commonly sourced from the Scottish Highlands and Lowlands, known for their rich colours and banding.

The brooch has a sturdy pin and classic Victorian design - bold, wearable, and full of character.
