

Fine quality carved jade hanging perfume vase
POA

The beautiful unusually carved vase is made of translucent quality light green jade. The vase is chained and made of one jade piece. The whole design is presented on a wooden stand. The precious light green jade adds uniqueness and chic to this piece of art. The high level of mastery is proven by the intricacy of curving and the unique stone carving system. Silhouettes of the dragon and phoenix are presented on the vase. A dragon is located on the top of the vase. And several phoenixes are located on the sides and the front side of the vase. These are two of the most important mystic creatures throughout the whole human history. They symbolise good luck, love at home and family warmth. Thus, by purchasing this item, you will get the most powerful protection for not only yourself but also for your close ones. It is better to place such a sculpture in the bedroom as it holds a great amount of energy. That masterpiece is excellent for a private collection or exclusive present.
