

Antique carved jadeite Buddhas boulder POA

The magical sculpture of Buddhas is made of natural grey and brown jadeite. The complexity of stone carving is impressive, there are many small lines. Smooth transitions create a rather majestic and unique look of this mascot. Just look at the structure. The inner part of the image is made in green colour but the outer part is absolutely brown. Looks like that it is made of two different stones, but, trust me, it's not. Only thanks to his vast experience in stone carving the master managed to create such a realistic sculpture. Moreover, if we also take into account that Buddha symbolises wisdom, development, desire to know oneself, then such a mascot will become simply irreplaceable for everyone. By purchasing this sculpture, you attract happiness, luck, prosperity into your life.
