

Large antique emperor jade statue POA

This large antique sculpture is made of unique solid jade stone of an unusual colour. The grey-green colour turns into brown, which gives this sculpture sophistication and value. One place has the cat-eye effect. It is great when a perfect jade stone meets a perfect carver - this is a perfect combination of human's efforts and the power of nature. Refined lines, soft transitions, curves testify to the high quality of the carver work and many years of experience. The image of an old man symbolises wisdom. This sculpture symbolises happiness, prosperity and fun. It is recommended to place such a mascot in the family area or in the business area, as it is able to bring its owner both mutual understanding in family, and the rapid development of business and new spheres of life. The Emperor statue will bring you good luck and power.
