

Green jade nephrite animal sculpture
POA

The carved animal sculpture is made of spinach-coloured green jade. The sculpture is presented on the wooden stand, with which it is sold. Accurate bends, refined lines and curves are striking from the first second, as soon as you look at this sculpture. The sculpture depicts a bull. The roar of the bull symbolises thunder, rain and fertility. As the embodiment of productive masculine power, the bull is associated with the fertile powers of the sun, rain, storm, thunder and lightning, hence both dry and wet elements. Thus, the bull is a purely masculine mascot that will be a great gift for any occasion. The bull also means prosperity and money. By purchasing this mascot, the owner receives additional strength and aspirations to develop himself and his business. It is recommended to put such a mascot in the business area, so no one can deceive you and take advantage of you.
