

Silver Paste Golfer Brooch | English c.1985 | London Hallmark POA

This playful 1980s brooch captures a golfer mid-swing, just about to tee off.

Crafted in sterling silver and fully set with bright, clear paste stones, the figure is brought to life with stylised detail - checkered shirt, striped socks, and a tiny ball at the feet.

The red and green enamel accents add a hit of colour to this clean Art Deco revival design.

Hallmarked with the London Leopard's Head and date letter L for 1985, the brooch measures approximately 7.5cm tall and 2.5cm across.

It's a confident, eye-catching piece - perfect for the golf lover or collector of novelty figural jewellery.

Still wearable, still fun—and a bit of 1980s charm you don't see every day.

Available exclusively at ELTONS, Grays Antique Market, Mayfair, London.
