

Cazzaniga Gold Necklace And Earrings Suite, Circa 1960
£40,000.00

A vintage suite by Italian designer Angelo Giorgio Cazzaniga, comprised of a pendant necklace and pair of matching earrings, all mounted in 18ct yellow gold. The necklace consists of openwork cylindrical links, with light-blue enamelled ends, and a polished coral bead set in-between each link, with an intricate cylindrical pendant hanging below, set with coral, sapphire, turquoise, diamond and enamel in a sweeping leaf formation. The earrings consist of fine twisted rope bars, with light-blue enamelled ends, set with a polished coral bead to the top and the bottom, with hinged clip fittings. Signed to the tongue clasp. Circa 1960.
