

Antique Diamond, Silver And Gold Necklace, Circa 1905
£65,000.00

An Edwardian, diamond fringed, openwork necklace, with alternating floral clusters and single, old mine-cut diamonds, with a removable diamond fringed swag, connected by a hook at each floral cluster, comprising eight old cut-diamond drops, in pear shaped mounts, with an estimated total diamond weight of 20.00ct, mounted in silver-upon-gold, in an H. Buckmann box. Circa 1905.

Period	Early 1900s
Style	Edwardian
Condition	Good
Materials	Gold
Main Gemstone	Diamond
Main Gemstone Cut	Old Mine Cut
Main Gemstone Carat	Total 20.00ct
Dimensions	Length approximately 400mm

Antique ref: S11218N