

Victorian Gold Enamel And Pearl Earrings And Brooch Suite, Circa 1875
£2,400.00

A Victorian gold enamel and pearl suite, featuring a brooch-cum-pendant and drop earrings, the brooch has a central half seed pearl, in a star setting, surrounded by blue guilloché enamel, on an oval gold bead, in the centre of a concave oval, with an Etruscan style wirework surround, within a decorative border of openwork fans, superimposed with granulated plaques, with a locket back and a pin and catch fitting, the matching drop earrings have a ball at the top, with a pear shape pendant, within a frame, with kite shape pendants drops below the central oval, with wire fittings, mounted in 15ct gold, circa 1875.

Period	19th Century
Style	Victorian
Materials	Base Metal
Main Gemstone	Pearl

Antique ref: 26390S