

Vintage Art Deco Diamond and Platinum Earrings, Circa 1940, 10.50 Carats £29,000.00

A pair of substantial Art Deco diamond and platinum earrings, in a geometric curved, stepped design, featuring a central row of Edwardian-cut diamonds, with a row of baguette-cut diamonds set either side, flanked by a border of smaller, round brilliant-cut and eight-cut diamonds, in substantial platinum mounts, onto a decorative pierced back, with yellow gold, clip-on fittings, circa 1940. Estimated total diamond weight of 10.50 carats.

These Art Deco diamond and platinum earrings from the 1940s exude elegance and glamour. The round white diamonds set in platinum make a statement of sophistication. The sleek design and original Art Deco style showcase the timeless beauty and craftsmanship of vintage jewellery. Perfect for adding a touch of luxury to any outfit, these earrings are a stunning addition to any jewellery collection.

Period	1940s
Style	Art Deco
Materials	Platinum
Main Gemstone	Diamond
Main Gemstone Cut	Brilliant Cut
Main Gemstone Carat	Total 10.50ct

Dimensions

Length 21mm, width 15.5mm. 26.7 grams

Antique ref: 31112E5