

Edwardian 5-Stone Ruby Ring in 18ct Gold | c.1910, 1.66ct POA

Created in England in the early 1910s, this glowing Edwardian ruby ring is set in rich 18ct gold and set with five deep pink red natural rubies totaling approximately 1.66 carats.

The stones are beautifully graduated, claw set, and full of life, with the centre stone subtly oval and slightly domed, framed by two round rubies on either side.

Elegant scrolled shoulders and a fully hallmarked band complete the look, bearing the Birmingham anchor, crown, 18ct stamp, and date letter 'L'.

Currently size O.
