

Sterling Silver Cauldron SALT Pots - Wakeley & Wheeler - 1905
£299.99

An unusual pair of Scandinavian / Viking / Celtic inspired silver cauldron shaped salt pots.

Made over 100 years ago, by the firm of Wakeley and Wheeler.

Without original box.

Markings: Fully marked as per the image above, London assay, 1905. Silver weight 97 grams.

Condition: Both are in excellent undamaged condition with light signs of use, freshly polished and hygienically clean. Slightly matt finish. The blue liners are undamaged. Please see images above.

Material and Technique	Silver
Origin	British
Period	Early 1900s
Condition	Excellent
Hallmark	Fully hallmarked
Dimensions	Each measures 2 1/4" (5.5 cm) in diameter, 1 3/4" (4 cm) tall.

Antique ref: HCMILLS-80